

Defined — Who God Says You Are

Week 1: God Says I Am His Child

Key Verse: Romans 8:16 — "The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God."

1. Adoption, Not Just Forgiveness

Forgiveness clears a debt. Adoption gives a name, an inheritance, a family. God didn't just say "we're even" — He said "you're family." Before the foundation of the world, He chose you and placed you in His family.

2. The Orphan Voice Is Lying to You

The orphan always feels like they have to prove themselves. A child knows they belong. The Spirit says something different: "No condemnation. You belong. You're mine."

3. Your Identity Creates Your Obedience

Most of us try to change behavior to earn identity. But it works the other way around. When you know whose you are, you know who you are — and obedience flows from belonging, not obligation.
